DEPLORABLE TRAGEDY

Elmer [Nash, 14, Shot and Killed By Jennings
Dickson, 15

Boy Poacher Forfeits Life For Stealing Green Apples

An unfortunate killing occurred on the race-track farm owned by W. W. Ball and situated South of Forest avenue, about 5:30 o'clock yesterday afternoon in which Elmer Nash, aged 15 years, was shot with a small rifle in the hands of Jennings Dickson, the 14 year old son of James Dickson, a tenant on the Ball farm, the youth dying a few minutes after the shooting.

At 7 o'clock Sheriff W. H. Mackay went to the Dickson home and arrested young Dickson and locked him up in the county jail.

The boy was nearly overcome by the tragedy and was unable last evening to give a lucid account of the unfortunate affair.

There are so many conflicting stories told concerning the killing that it is best to await the evidence to be brought out at the examining trial before County Judge Rice today.

It is even said that Dickson slipped up on Nash through the weeds and deliberately shot him.

On the other side it was alleged that Nash and two other boys were taking the apples and had been repeatedly warned away by the Dicksons and at the time of the shooting Dickson was standing on his porch and took a shot at the kids at long range, about 600 feet, it is said, and that Dickson didn't know he had shot the lad until he heard screams. The two boys with Nash ran away when they saw Elmer was shot.

After Nash was shot he started to crawl away in the lane and was found by Jack Preley, who started to the Nash home with him, but the boy died before reaching his home.

Dr. A. O. Taylor was hurriedly phoned for, but on reaching the Nash home the little fellow was dead. Dr. Taylor says the shooting was done with a long .22 rifle ball, the bullet entering the boy's left side, going clear through his body, piercing the heart and lodging under the skin on the right side. Dr. Taylor has the bullet.

Both boys are mere kids and the slayer has an honest, open look.

His full name is William Jennings Bryan Dickson and he declared he is only 14 years old. Dickson says he only shot to scare the boys and that he was 200 yards away. He was never in trouble before.

Elmer Nash, known as "Fog," was a boy in knee pants. He is a son of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar Nash of Forest avenue, the father being an employee of the Spar Brick Plant.

It is truly a distressing affair and we trust it will teach the other boys a lesson to keep away from other people's property, and also not to be too hasty about using a gun.

A fool kid with a gun is a dangerous animal.

THE CORONER'S VERDICT.

We, the Jury, find the body before us to be that of Elmer Nash, white, aged 15, of Forest avenue, Maysville, Ky., and from the evidence we believe that he came to his death from a gunshot wound in the right side in the hands of Jennings Dickson of Mason county, Ky., and we also believe that the shooting was deliberate.

IM A DILEMMA

An Aged Seeker After Connubial
Joys Strikes a Snag in This City

At 10 o'clock yesterday morning the hurried footsteps of Mr. F. F. Swanson of Huntington, W. Va., sought the cool shade of the Mason County Clerk's office. On his arrival the urbane Clerk was asked to issue a marriage license to Mr. Swanson and some fair maiden whose habitation was old Illinois.

Upon explanation by the Clerk that the visage of the bride-to-be would have to be gazed upon by the Clerk for the purpose of determining the approximate age of the applicant, it developed that the bride-to-be was still in Illinois and that she and Mr. Swanson were to meet and marry in Cincinnati that evening at 6 o'clock on their arrival in that city, and wanted a license issued by the Mason County Clerk for that purpose.

Our polite Clerk told Mr. Swanson that while it would afford him pleasure to comply with the request, it would be directly contrary to law to do so, for while Mr. Swanson claimed the lady to be 61, for all the Clerk knew she might be sweet 16.

What to do bothered Mr. Swanson terribly, and he plead earnestly with the kindly Clerk to show him a way out of his dilemma, as the marriage license office in Cincinnati closed at 4:30 o'clock and Mr. Swanson and his intended bride could not reach the city before 6 p. m., and it was imperative that the marriage should take place that evening.

After a few thoughtful thoughts our efficient and obliging Clerk brought the long distance 'phone into use. Upon the promise of Mr. Swanson not to be later than 6 p. m. in reaching the city, and a further intimation that the Queen City Clerk would not be forgotten in Mr. Swanson's will, the kindly official was persuaded to remain at his office and issue the license.

Good luck and happiness to the persevering old gentleman.

SCHOOL QUESTIONS

Seek Information From County
Superintendent Says State
Instructor Ham-
lett

To Teachers and Trustees:

The proper medium for the settlement of controversies arising between teachers and trustees is the County Superintendent of Schools. Many teachers, Trustees and citizens have a custom of writing the State Superintendent of Public Instruction about every little detail of school management. I have no objection to answering these inquiries and it is always a pleasure to render assistance to any school official or citizen interested in the welfare of the school. These requests often state only one side of the question and it is impossible to give a fair decision until we have heard both sides. In view of these facts, I think it wise and just for all Trustees, teachers and citizens to submit these questions first to the County Superintendent. When an opinion is needed, the County Superintendent is the proper person to ask for an opinion from the State office. When this is done, he can give both sides of the question and the state office can render an intelligent opinion. Strictly speaking, I have no authority to give an opinion, except upon an appeal from the decision of the county Superintendent or upon his request. I desire to make this appeal to all teachers and Trustees, to submit your questions first to the County Superintendent, who is the proper person to decide all questions of difference and doubt regarding the schools of his county.

"LIL' ATHER'S CAFE"

Some Class to This Nickel Plated
Mosaic Joint

CHICAGO, July 10th.—It should have been champagne, but it was beer, nevertheless, the initial opening of Jack Johnson's cafe, at 41 West Thirty-first street, tonight was as wild an opening as could have been witnessed had Louis Martin himself, established a Chicago restaurant.

It was an occasion of some "ecst." The champion said so himself, as he beamed at the mosaic tile floored grill room, which held 400 persons, while there were seats for 208. Then he went up stairs to the pomparian, and estimated the receipts. At the door 5,000 battled with the police in a wild endeavor to get into one of the three drink dispensing parlors, but they battled in vain.

Three thousand bottles of beer, 500 miscellaneous drinks, 5 bottles of champagne, 2 Russian caviar sandwiches, one order of ham and eggs, and a piece of apple pie—that is the estimate of the evening selling, made by Henry Sterritt, the manager.

FOR PRESIDENT,
WILLIAM HOWARD TAFT.
FOR VICE PRESIDENT,
JAMES S. SHERMAN.

There are many issues of vital import to be settled during the next four years—the Tariff the currency, women's suffrage, the regulation of trusts and the conservation of natural resources. And the most vital of these is the Tariff. The life blood of the nation is dependent in a large degree upon the proper adjustment of the tariff.

Senator Kenyon's Free-Trade tendencies will not likely appeal very strongly to the farmers of Iowa. What they want is Protected farm products as well as Protection for the output of the factory and for labor. In other words, they do not look very kindly upon the idiotic scheme, half Protection and half Free-Trade, and such that the record of Kenyon shows him to be.—Cedar Rapids Optimus.

It is stated that of the 500,000 women in California entitled to vote, less than 20,000 voted at the presidential primary, and it is not expected that more than 150,000 will vote for President next fall. Evidently a large majority of the women of that State do not want to vote.

About 300 men and 100 children are employed in the two glass factories of Uruguay and they work 8 hours a day. Peons receive 25 pesos (Uruguayan peso is equivalent to $1.034 U. S. gold) per month, the smallest wage paid to the other adults being 50 pesos and to children 9 to 12 pesos for a similar period.

Costs of production as well as prices go up and down. Prices which would yield a profit to-day might be below the profit line to-morrow. It is impracticable to change Tariff schedules with every change in the cost of raw material or labor.

If we are to preserve our manufacturing industries and keep wages at a high standard, we must, as most other countries do, give them such Protection as will prevent foreign manufactures from making the United States a dumping ground for their surplus. And there should be as few changes as possible, for every change affects values and disturbs business conditions.

It has been demonstrated again and again that a reduction in Tariff, while it may seriously affect the manufacturer or his employees, rarely reduces cost to the consumer. The abolition of the Tariff on hides and coffee did not reduce the price of shoes or coffee to the consumer.—Leavenworth (Kan.) Post.

Caligula, the "Crazy Emperor"

"I WISH!" shouted Caligula, in one of his manicured fingers, "that the Roman people had but one neck, so that I might sever it at a single blow!"

The man who voiced this gentle wish was the third emperor of Rome, a probable lunatic who filled his short reign with comic opera absurdities and with unspeakable horrors. His real name was Calus Caesar Augustus Germanicus. His habit of wearing "caligae," or military boots, led the soldiers among whom he spent his boyhood to nickname him "Caligula."

Julius Caesar had made Rome ruler of the world. His nephew, Augustus, had been its first emperor. Augustus was succeeded by Tiberius, a miser and tyrant. After the murder of Tiberius in 37 A. D. young Caligula (great grandson of Augustus) became emperor. He is generally believed to have caused Tiberius' death in order to clear his own way to the throne.

The beginning of Caligula's reign was all that could be desired. He gave promise of being an ideal emperor. He lightened the people's burdens, forgave political enemies, set prisoners free and governed the country so wisely and mercifully that, when at last he fell dangerously ill, all Rome went into mourning.

Unluckily he recovered from the illness. But he came back to health a wholly different man. The sickness is supposed to have crazed him.

That is the kindest judgment possible. The gentle, liberal emperor had changed into a demon. His first step was to begin a wholesale slaughter of his former friends. When there were no criminals to throw to the wild beasts in the arena he ordered dozens of innocent spectators hurled to the lions. He had a set of torture implements placed in his dining hall so that he might enjoy watching prisoners tortured to death while he ate.

During a single year he wasted all of Tiberius' carefully hoarded fortune—more than $25,000,000—and then overtaxed the people to gain new money for extravagances. One of his favorite methods of getting wealth was to force his rich courtiers to gamble with him for enormous sums. They dared not win, for fear of death. When Caligula had won all their cash and jewels and estates he made them stake their lives on a throw of the dice. When they lost, their relatives were obliged to ransom them at whatever amount Caligula might name.

He professed to be a direct descendant of the gods, and he once attempted to fight a duel with the mythical deity, Jupiter, by throwing stones at the sky during a thunderstorm. One nobleman was executed for being better dressed than the emperor; another for being better looking.

Caligula had a horse he loved. He kept it in an ivory stall and fed it on gilded oats from a manger of marble and gold. In an outburst of insanity he even bestowed on this horse the rank of "high priest" and "consul."

Seeking military glory, Caligula once hurried an army into Germany. Thinking of this campaign before a battle had been fought, he decided to invade Britain. So he embarked his troops for that island. But scarcely were they aboard the ships when he ordered them all on land again. Then, drawing up his army in line of battle on the beach, he commanded his soldiers to fill their helmets with shells and pebbles. They did so, and he returned to Rome, announcing that he had conquered the ocean. He also dressed a number of his Gaelic subjects in German costumes, then had them publicly executed as "prisoners of war captured in Germany."

The imperial madman ruled the world as might a violent maniac taken from an asylum and given "life-and-death control of everything." But his crimes and follies were too great for even the callous Romans. An officer whom Caligula had grossly insulted formed a conspiracy against him.

On January 24, 41 A. D.—in the twenty-ninth year of his age and the fourth year of his vile reign—the conspirators forced an entrance into his palace and slew him.

Concett Led to His Undoing. Concett and laughter led to the recent arrest of a German postal employee, who had absconded from Chemnitz, Germany, with $40,000 in money and papers. Two Swiss detectives were in the restaurant of a large hotel at Rale, when a well-dressed man carrying a number of newspapers sat down at the next table and laughed loudly as he opened each paper when he saw a photograph. The laughter and curious attitude of the visitor attracted the attention of the detectives, one of whom politely asked to see a paper, and found that the photo and description (with $250 reward) referred to the stranger himself, whom they promptly arrested. A large sum of money in shares and notes was found in his room.

A Great Rally at Baptist Church
Sunday morning we will enter our church, after a vacation of five weeks, during which time the church has been frescoed, re-lighted and given a general cleaning. It is now a thing of beauty, and is an honor to the town and the Baptists.

All members and friends of the Church are cordially invited to attend the opening services, both in the Church and Sunday-school. We are anxious to make this the greatest day in the history of the church. There will be special music, and the sermon will be on the subject "Forward."

At the evening service, the congregation will be given the opportunity to see the church illuminated, which in my opinion will show up the church to the very best advantage. The public is extended a cordial invitation to attend both the morning and evening services, and the members are all urged to be present.

Beware of Ointments For Catarrh That Contain Mercury.

Mercury will surely destroy the sense of smell and completely derange the whole system when entering it through the mucous surfaces. Such articles should never be used except on prescriptions from reputable physicians, as the damage they will do is tenfold to the good you can possibly derive from them. Hall's Catarrh Cure, manufactured by F. J. Cheney & Co., Toledo, O., contains no mercury, and is taken internally, acting directly upon the blood and mucous surfaces of the system. In buying Hall's Catarrh Cure be sure you get the genuine. It is taken internally, and made in Toledo, O., by F. J. Cheney & Co. Patent Medicine.

ROOSEVELT'S HERESIES

Condemned By Kentucky Bar Association, Which Also Hits Recall of Judges

Numerous exceptions to the Nationalism were taken by John M. Harlan of Chicago, son of the late Justice John M. Harlan of the United States Supreme Court, in an address at Louisville before the Kentucky Bar Association.

"Summarized," declared Mr. Harlan, "the Governmental measures proposed in the text-book of nationalism appears to me to embrace about everything I ever heard of Mr. Roosevelt's advocating in the way of governmental, political, financial, economical, industrial, educational and sociology measures, with the exception of a proposal for legislation against race suicide and legislation requiring phonetic spelling. Put in all the long list of objects enumerated in the New Nationalism not one could be claimed susceptible of possible achievement without amendment of the constitution."

Mr. Harlan declared that "the New Nationalism of Mr. Roosevelt is impatient of a balanced government and of constitutional limitations, precisely as was Mr. Roosevelt when President." Mr. Harlan spoke to a crowd of several hundred persons in the United States District Court room at the Federal building. He was introduced by Chief Justice J. P. Hobson of the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

Just before the close of the afternoon session, President Baskin put the question: "Resolved, That the Kentucky State Bar Association is earnestly opposed to the recall of judges," and it was almost unanimously adopted. There was no discussion.

Gossip never interests a woman—if she has heard of it before.

A girl wouldn't mind having red hair if it wasn't for the color.

If some women are to be permitted to wear hats at the theater, as German courts have decided, they ought to be required to pay for vacant seats behind them.

What to do with our ex-Presidents is still a bothersome question, but it is not more bothersome than the problem: What to do with our ex-candidates for President.

What's The Matter With Your Baby?

The young mother—and many an old one, too—is often puzzled to know the cause of her child's ill nature. The loudness of its crying does not necessarily indicate the seriousness of its trouble. It may have nothing more than the matter with it than a headache or a feeling of general dullness. It cannot, of course, describe its feelings, but as a preliminary measure you are safe in trying a mild laxative.

Nine times out of ten, you will find it is all the child needs for its restlessness and peevishness are perhaps due to obstruction of the bowels, and once that has been remedied the headache, the sluggishness and the many other evidences of constipation and indigestion will quickly disappear.

Don't give the little one salts, cathartics or purgatives, for these will act as purgatives, and they are too strong for a child. In the families of

MAYSVILLE CITIZENS' EXPERIENCES FURNISH TOPICS FOR MAYSVILLE DISCUSSION

The following experiences occurred in Maysville. A Maysville citizen relates it. Similar experiences are occurring daily. Maysville people are being relieved. Getting rid of distressing kidney ills. Trying Doan's Kidney Pills the tested Quaker remedy.

Maysville people testify, Maysville people profit.

The evidence is home evidence—the proof convincing.

Maysville testimony is gratefully given.

W. F. Lynch, 127 W. Third street, Maysville, Ky., says: "Doan's Kidney Pills are a fine medicine. My kidneys were weak and the passages of the kidney secretions were scanty and painful. Having used Doan's Kidney Pills before, I again got a box and their use quickly restored my kidneys to a normal condition. I continued using Doan's Kidney Pills and they completely relieved me."

Art Steel Tube Bed

Do you see how the square cross-rod at top of head and foot beautify this bed? Imagine this design with round tubing in these positions. Would not the result be "ordinary" and monotonous?

It is just such details of clever and artistic designing that have made our steel beds so popular. And the very large corner posts with brass caps all combine to make this an unusually artistic bed.

Moreover this bed is as good as it looks. Because it is made of drawn steel tubing, very light in weight—extremely strong.

A child can move this bed with the greatest ease. Come in and see this bed. Then you will realize how good it is.

It is expected that the Federal surplus for the fiscal year, ended June 30, will amount to $32,000,000, as against $45,682,000 a year ago.

FOUND DEAD

In Pike With Faithful Dog Asleep on Breast

Amanda Pitt, an aged woman of the Mill Creek neighborhood, was found dead in the pike near her home this morning about 6 o'clock. The supposition is that she was on her way to a neighboring house when stricken with heart disease. She was leading a little dog with a string, and when found the faithful dog was lying with its head on the dead woman's breast sound asleep.

Coroner Slack was called and left for the scene early this morning to hold an inquest. Up to the time of going to press THE LEDGER was unable to gather full particulars.

DESIGN OF FIVE-CENT PIECES TO BE CHANGED

WASHINGTON, July 11th.—The executive order which will completely change the design of the United States 5 cent piece probably will be issued by President Taft within a few weeks.

J. W. Frazer, the New York artist, is working out the design, which will be completed shortly for submission to the President for approval.

The figure of a buffalo has been selected for the nickel's face to displace the Goddess of Liberty, because it is explained, the buffalo is peculiarly an American animal. The Goddess of Liberty is on several other United States coins. The thought of the buffalo suggested the Indian and for that reason an artistic head of a red man will adorn the reverse of the piece of money.

Big and Bumper Crops

The July crop report issued by the Commissioner of Agriculture shows that conditions generally in Kentucky are much improved as compared with a month ago. Corn and tobacco are reported to have suffered from excessive rainfalls.

Chief Food Inspector Bame, at Cincinnati, last week condemned 4,311 dozen eggs. The average is about 1,000 dozen a week.

The gage marks 9.9 and falling.

WEATHER REPORT

FAIR TODAY AND THUNDER-STORMS TOMORROW

There was an old woman—indeed 'tis no dream—

Who lived upon little but Toasties and 'cream;

And if you would know her delight in such diet,

Just purchase a box at the grocer's and try it.

CASH! CASH! CASH!

FORCED TO RAISE CASH!

TOMORROW, SATURDAY, At 8 A. M.

We will open our doors with a sale the like of which has never been known in the mercantile history of Mason county. Closed all day Friday marking down our entire stock to prices that must burn them into cash at once. Manufacturers have, within the past few weeks, shipped in carloads of summer footwear to be sold at once and cash realized.

Overloaded, we are compelled to sell at once.

ABSOLUTE NECESSITY DEMANDS THESE EXTREME MEASURES.

WE MUST RAISE CASH!

And raise it in a hurry. It is not now a question of profit or even of cost. We must unload our immense stock and have marked them without reserve at prices that must bring the cash at once. So here goes. The following can give you but a faint idea of the greatest money saving proposition ever offered.
